

Speak Up, Speak Out Creating Change in Your High School

Wednesday, November 18, 2020
7:00pm-8:00pm

Hear from your peers who are shaping school communities.

Learn how to unleash your inner leader and activist.

Share ideas about how your school can better support student needs.

Plus, engage in a student panel and discussion.

Student panelists include: Sarah-Rose Genovese, 10th Grade, Fairfield Warde High School (Fairfield Warde Voices for Equity and Fairfield Equity Coalition), Caroline Guza, 12th Grade, Sacred Heart Greenwich (LiveGirl and The Period Poverty Project), Flor Huerta, 11th Grade, Bassick High School (Make the Road CT - Bridgeport Youth Power Committee), Abnerline Macenat, 12th Grade, J.M. Wright Technical High School (Blackout Stamford, Womental Minds Project, and LiveGirl), Andrew McKinnis, 11th Grade, Fairfield Ludlowe High School (Fairfield Equity Coalition and Youth for Equity), Carlee Reid, 12th Grade, The Academy of Information Technology and Engineering (Author & Illustrator – Oscar Wears Pink Clothes and I Love My Kinky Hair), Jacob Tomlin, 11th Grade, Norwalk High School (President, NAACP Chapter at Norwalk High School), Alice Valerio, 9th Grade, WestHill High School
